

Praise Him in the Dance

Worship in Motion

November 2004, Volume3

Director's Comments

In the month of December we are usually reminded to be loving, kind and charitable.... But I would like to remind you of something a little different, yet the same. I would like to remind you to stay true to the meaning of everyday of a believers life. True to the calling, true to the conviction, true to Christ. Remember not to compromise your beliefs, not to allow only your goodness to be because of a season, but because of a greater reason that you would extend your love, kindness, goodness, gentleness, Every day of your life.

Blessings and enjoy the Holidays.
