Director's Message

The X in Xmas

Isn't it interesting that many people today try to be politically correct with the word Christmas (The word "Christmas" is a contraction meaning "Christ's mass") by replacing the Christ in Christmas with X and therefore referring to it as X-mas. However, as you take a closer look you see that the X is really The Cross turned sideways. And even through they try to remove Christ from Christmas; they unknowingly use a letter (X) that is a fitting replacement.

Luke 23:34 Jesus said, "Father, forgive them, for they do not know what they are doing." The same can be said here.

It is sad however, that Christmas has become more focused on things such as traditions, commercialism, materialism, etc.

We as Christians need to make sure that our message to our families and the world is never void of Christ, even and especially when we are called to be lights in the dark. How will we help them find their way if we are lost ourselves. We need to come back to the true essence of Christmas and the celebration of this time of year being focused around Jesus and what He has done for all mankind.

Remember, Christmas can never be without the cross ...  Mas

Background info on Christmas (source: <http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Christmas>)

Christmas is sometimes shortened to Xmas, an abbreviation that has a long history.^[4] In early Greek versions of the New Testament, the letter X (chi), is the first letter of Christ (Χριστός). Since the mid-sixteenth century X, or the similar Roman letter X, was used as an abbreviation for Christ.^[5]

Christmas or Christmas Day is an annual holiday that marks the traditional birthdate of Jesus of Nazareth. Christmas combines Christian celebrations of the birth of Jesus with various secular traditions and customs, many of which were influenced by ancient winter festivals such as Yule^[1] and Saturnalia. Over time, many popular Christmas traditions have developed, including the display of Nativity scenes and Christmas trees, the exchange of gifts and cards, and the arrival of Santa Claus on Christmas Eve. Popular Christmas themes include the promotion of goodwill, giving, compassion, and quality family time.

From the Manager to the Cross review

By Charmaine Hinds

Brazil in December you say? We were happily surprised at the response to Worship in Motion's recent partnership event with Compassion Canada. The attendance for the Compassion dinner theatre and response to the children of Brazil was delightfully overwhelmingly positive. The dinner for the evening was catered by Wright way catering and was a Brazilian delight. The Aphasis Drama team was witty and had a great message to reinforce the theme of the true meaning of Christmas. With uniquely WIM dances done by young and old dancers to Christmas songs familiar and new, the Christmas spirit really came alive.

The continuation of the Christmas Celebration on the Saturday night was before a full house with standing room only. All attendees were blessed and ministered to with the complete story of not only the manger, but also the cross and our resurrected Saviour, Yeshua the Christ.

We all eagerly anticipate the upcoming Celebration "The Carpenter" being presented March 30, 31, April 1, 2007
