DIRECTOR'S MESSAGE

Blessings to all of you, I am in such a wonderful place, so much so I find it hard to explain. I am in a tight space close to the One that holds me. I am excited, yet scared. Anticipating all the new things on the horizon yet petrified at how much God might actually do with WIM. You are about to be apart of the new shift of what Father God is doing in these times. It is like they say "It was the best of times, it was the worst of times." Know that when the world gets darker and calamities happen that this is the sign for the light to become bright and for God to become God. Get ready!!!

We welcome you back for second semester thank you for your dedication, for without all of you the ministry school would not exist.

HOMEWORK HELPERS

Multiplication can be a difficult but the only way to get past the difficulty is with practice, practice, practice.

Finish this bible quote

Jesus saith unto him
I am the _____, the
_____, and the
_____: no man cometh unto the
_____, but by
_____.

John 14:6 KJV

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father which art in heaven,
Hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come.
Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily
bread.
And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil:
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever.
Amen

Something for the kids

Welcome to semester TWO!!! We have an exciting journey ahead of us. We will learn new dances and prepare for the conference. We will work hard while having loads of fun dancing.

So lets get dancing ...

FROM THE GREAT BOOK

THE STORM

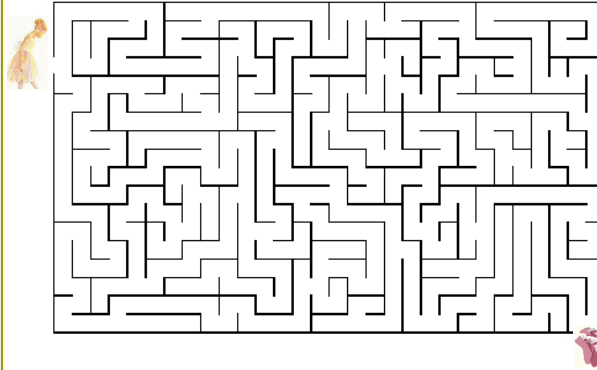

Jesus got into the boat. His followers were with him. A great storm came on the lake. Jesus was asleep.

His followers said, "Lord, save us! We're going to die!" Jesus said, "Why are you afraid?" He spoke to the wind and it stopped blowing. He spoke to the water and it became still.

Read more about this story in your bible. Matthew 8: 23 - 27 and Mark 4: 35 - 41.

What does this story teach you about Jesus?

Help this little dancer find her shoes...
